

RELEASE AND HOLD HARMLESS

Virginia Port Authority, and Virginia International Terminals, Inc. ("Hosts") disclaim any and all warranties associated with this terminal tour. Marine terminals involve ongoing industrial activities which have the potential to cause harm. Some of these activities include many vehicles moving in close proximity to one another, vessels loading and unloading, warehousing, storage, fumigation, railroad operations, container positioning and storage, and waterside activities.

I fully understand that there is a margin for potential injury, property loss or damage with my presence at marine terminals and expressly assume those risks in consideration for this tour. I agree to obey the directions of the terminal tour guide at all times, although tour instructions do not constitute an express warranty of any kind. I will remain with the tour at all times in the areas designated by the tour personnel.

I expressly assume all risks associated with this tour and forego any claims, demands or actions that I, my heirs or executors may have of any kind against the Hosts, their agents, employees, representatives, board of directors, officers, underwriters, successors or assigns and agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Hosts for all liabilities of any kind, including attorney's fees which may arise from this tour, unless caused by the gross negligence of the Hosts.
